

12 YEAR HEROIN ADDICT TELLS HIS STORY

BROOKFIELD TOWN HALL – ROOM 133

MARCH 20, 2015

7 P.M. – 9 P.M.

Pete Brady founder and President of Handy Dandy Handy Man Non-Profit Organization www.hdhm.org is sponsoring a two hour program on Drug Abuse featuring a recovering addict (29 years old) who has been clean for two years and is willing (at Pete's request) to speak on his life and his road to recovery to convince you, your spouse, your teenage children, the pitfalls and misunderstandings of minor/major drug abuse.

Introduced by a family member at age 12 to marijuana, at age 15 introduced to Heroin using and dealing for twelve years after, in fourteen rehab attempts. Listen to how he became clean.

Questions/Answer period will follow the talk.

Seating capacity is 100.

Free Admission.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.
